VISITORS BEATEN
BY CITY FELLOWSFairmont Elks Duck Pin Team Gets Trimmed at the Home Here.SHINNSTONDefeated in a Fast Game on the Gore Bowling Alleys.The Fairmont Lodge of Elks duck pin team returned to its native town Monday night on the last interurban street car a wiser and sadder bunch as it lost the third game and series of the three contests in duck pins, when the local lodge of Elks' team took it over in three well rolled games on the club alleys last night, winning out by sixty-five pins.In the first game four men on each team shot over the 100 mark, each team having a total of over 500, but Clarksburg had an eleven pin lead going into the second game which was also very close, but only two men got over 100—Hunter for Fairmont with 115 and Dresbach, for Clarksburg with 122.In the last game Clarksburg kept up its good work, but the visitors could not stand the pace and were swamped in grand style, losing this game by forty-four pins.After the contests were over a light lunch was served the visitors who, hastily departing on the last car, openly avowed that they would get revenge when the Clarksburg team went to their city again. Mannington or Grafton Elks will be the next team to roll the local crew of duck pin experts.Following are the scores:
